About Janis Underwood

Janis is a spiritual coach, ULC minister and the creator of Sacred Psychic Surgery. She specializes in assisting clients with retrieving their spiritual gifts and living energetically through re-establishing and healing the mind-body connection. Her background in engineering has blended nicely with various modalities including meditation, NLP, Reiki, Past Life Regression Therapy, Hypnosis and Quantum Energetics. She is an energetic being in physical form here to help people recover and use their energetic and intuitive aspects in practical life affirming ways.

Working alongside her team of healers, her hands become attuned to the physical body and are guided to specific areas of it, allowing transformative healing and release of long standing issues within a powerful healing space.
