Every 1st and 3rd Tuesday at 3 pm pt /6 pm et
Unstuck Joy! with Vicki Todd
The Art of Living On Purpose

Seattle, WA – August 15, 2017

Memoir Artist, Story Teller, Life Purpose Guide Be YOU + live your Purpose = JOY! That's the motto of Unstuck Joy!

Vicki believes you were born with gifts that you're meant to use to make the world a brighter place – aka - your unique life Purpose. However, life can get in the way. You become stuck in circumstances that hold you back from being your best self. Have you ever wondered, "Is this all life has to offer? There MUST be more!" If you answer "yes," then Unstuck Joy! is the show for YOU!

Each show will feature a memoir artwork painted by Vicki that taps into universal themes of evolution, hope, inner strength, and self-growth. The artwork will set the show's theme and serve as a springboard for discussion. Vicki will also ask listeners to create your path to soul clarity with Art Visioning. Draw, doodle, collage, write, and/or paint your way to understanding who you were born to be by participating in an Art Visioning art journal prompt – a fun, creative, messy, for-your-eyes-only vehicle to discover your own soul revelations and live more JOY! Vicki's Art Visioning process encourages you to align with the Universe, ask deep questions about soul topics - such as what are limiting beliefs that block your flow toward being your True Self and what would your Future Elder Warriress encourage you to do before your last day on Earth or else you'll regret not doing it - and record discoveries in an art journal with the help of Vicki's simple art journaling prompts. Art journaling allows you to use images, words, favorite quotes, poems, minds maps, and colors to convey concepts in a way that using logical, linear words cannot. Unstuck JOY! will also feature guests from a variety of lightworker fields, who have overcome their own limiting beliefs and obstacles, to help listeners pinpoint strategies to become unstuck and live a more exuberant life. Unstuck Joy! will compel you to tune into your soul's whispers to realize your unique dreams!

Vicki believes in the transformational power of art. She is a storyteller and expresses her life story through her memoir artworks. She paints expressive female portraits that represent her Heroine's Journey of how she's come to realize who her True Self is and how she's evolving toward boldly living her Purpose. Vicki finds art to be an emotional release, a way to purge feelings of anxiety, fear, hope, anticipation, and determination. Vicki's hope is that you will gain joy, peace and clarity about your own journey through her Art Visioning exercises, especially if you feel stuck in life. Your Purpose and life circumstances are unique to you. You may be able to easily weave your Purpose into your current life, making it more vibrant and textured, without causing cosmic shifts that rock your world. Or, maybe you – like Vicki – feel the need in the depths of your soul to take a more pronounced leap of faith into the unknown to fully spread your True Self wings. Either way, Vicki hopes that her Art Visioning process will reverberate with you and inspire you to fulfill your own unique Calling and live more JOY!

About Vicki Todd

Vicki Todd, Ed.D, is a memoir artist and life coach. Vicki was living a double life. She taught public relations and advertising courses for 17 years at the university level, but her dirty little secret was that she is really an artist at heart. She tried to live two existences, creating her art at night and any free weekends she could sneak in, but it just wasn't enough. The drumbeat of her life's Purpose became too loud and persistent to ignore. So, she put her octogenarian mother into shock by resigning from her tenured professor position to follow her bliss of art and to teach others that living YOUR life's Purpose is the key to joy, fulfillment, and deep meaning in life.

Vicki knows her stuff when it comes to evolution and change. She's flipped her life twice. Made two 180-degree shifts. Become unstuck from two life circumstances that were blocking her path toward evolving into her True Self.

Vicki is the author of a visual memoir, Unstuck: One Heroine's Journey of Art and the Courage to Live on Purpose. She is the host of Unstuck JOY! The Art of Living on Purpose radio show on Transformation Talk Radio Network, where she encourages listeners to create their path to soul clarity through Art Visioning. Vicki is an inspirational speaker and spreads the message that living your life's Purpose - using the gifts you were given at birth to make the world brighter - leads to a more joyous and fulfilling life. Vicki teaches "Paint Your True Selfie Portrait" and "Artist Heroine Memoir Cards" art workshops designed to help women identify and cultivate their True Self and life Purpose.
