About Megg Thompson

Megg Thompson, a former Kindergarten teacher of ten years, is a Certified Behavioral Consultant and Certified Life Coach with a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education. Megg is also the founder and filler of The eMpTy Toolbox. To get to where she is today she has interned with Bev Bos at the Roseville Community Preschool in Roseville, CA and with Jeanine Fitzgerald at the Fitzgerald Institute of Lifelong Learning in Northborough, MA. Through these experiences she has adopted a proactive and strength based approach to behavior. She uses this model to help ALL children and adults find success and empowerment through their natural design. She spends her days in both public and private schools, early learning centers and in homes helping children of all ages be the best they can be. Check her out at meggthompson.com!
